Stockholm, May 5. N. S.

ON the 30th paſt the Duke of Holſtein entred into the Fifteenth Year of his Age, and his Birth-day was Celebrated at this Court with great Solemnity. Yeſterday that Prince accompanied the Princeſs Ulrica, to ſee ſome Galleys which are to ſail this Day under the Command of Admiral Taube. It is thought the Members of the General Diet will return hither very ſoon, in order to take Meaſures for the Security of the Kingdom, ſince there has been no Confirmation of the Accounts we received ſome time ago of his Majeſty's departure from Turky, and of his having made an Agreement with King Auguſtus. The Archbiſhop of Upſal, who had given the greateſt Oppoſition againſt declaring her Royal Highneſs Regent of the Kingdom, is lately dead at his Seat in Upland. Monſieur Aven, Secretary of Holſtein, is arrived here, and Count Van der Nath is likewiſe expected very ſoon in this City. Letters from Carliſcroon bring an Account, that on the 22d paſt Admiral Wattrang ſet ſail from thence with Seven Men of War for Finland. He is to be reinforced by Two Ships more from Calmar, and Six from this Place. They write from Gottembourg, that a Muſcovite Veſſel, with ſeveral Officers on Board, had been taken by one of our Men of War, and brought into that Port. We have received Advice from Finland, that the Czar had ordered a Manifeſto to be publiſhed in that Province, in which he endeavours to ſhew, that the continuation of the War can be attributed only to his Swediſh Majeſty.

Vienna, May 19. N. S. Their Imperial Majeſties continue ſtill at Laxemberg. On the 27th the Empreſs intends to ſet out for Baden, in order to drink the Waters of that Place. The Princeſs Dowager of Averſperg is appointed to be firſt Lady of the Bedchamber, in the room of the Counteſs of Oettingen, lately deceaſed. The Emperor has conferred the Employment of Cupbearer of the Kingdom of Bohemia upon Count Michael d'Altheim, and made it Hereditary to his Family. Count Seilern ſet out on the 9th Inſtant for the Congreſs at Baden, and was followed Two Days after by Count Goes, who before his departure from hence was Sworn of the Privy Council to his Imperial Majeſty. On the 17th the Regiment of Bacoczai arrived here from the Upper Rhine, and is to march ſoon into Hungary. We are informed from thence, that General Pfefforhoſſen, Commandant of Buda, died ſome Days ago. The Fortifications of that Place are ordered to be compleated with all poſſible diligence. We have received advice from Conſtantinople, that the Rebels in Aſſia had been defeated by the Grand Signior's Army. Their Leader was killed in the Action, and the Rebellion was entirely quelled by his Death. The new Hoſpodar of Valachia hath notified his Advancement to the Emperor's Generals on the Frontiers, and has aſſured them, they ſhall meet with no Diſturbance from his Neighbourhood.

Hamburgh, May 29. N. S. We have receiv'd advice, that the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel returned into his own Dominions from Dreſden, on the 18th Inſtant. During his Stay at that Place, it is ſaid he acquainted King Auguſtus, that the reaſon of his deſiring an Interview with his Majeſty was, to renew and confirm the antient League that had been eſtabliſhed between the Electoral Houſe of Saxony, and his own. That the Alliance he was about to contract with Sweden, by the Marriage of his Son with the Princeſs Ulrica, had given occaſion to ſeveral Reports, which had made him ſeek that opportunity of coming to an Explanation with his Majeſty, in order to aſſure him of the ſincere continuation of his Friendſhip. That if by the means of this new Alliance he could be ſerviceable to his Majeſty, or any wiſe contribute towards putting an end to ſo calamitous a War, which both Parties had ſufficient reaſon to be tired of, he ſhould very readily employ his good Offices in it; and he was of Opinion his Intervention with the King of Sweden might be of ſome Uſe, ſince his own Miniſters durſt not ſpeak to him with freedom upon that Subject. We are inform'd that King Auguſtus anſwered, He was very willing to renew the League between the two Houſes. In relation to the Landgrave's Offer of mediating a Peace, he replied, That his Highneſs could not be ignorant of the Engagements he was under to his Allies; That he alſo knew the Confederates of the North were never averſe from a Treaty of Peace, and if any Propoſals tending towards it were made, he ſhould hearken to them with Pleaſure, and would immediately communicate them to the Czar, and the King of Denmark. King Auguſtus has receiv'd an account from the Palatin of Mazovia, his Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople, that the Peace with his Majeſty and the Republick of Poland was confirmed and proclaimed on the 14th paſt, and ſome Days after the Ambaſſador had his publick Audience. The Ottoman Port had receded from their Pretenſions to Ukrain, and no mention was made of King Staniſlaus in the Treaty. The Rendezvous of the Daniſh Troops is to be on the 15th of next Month, and the King of Denmark has put off his departure to Holſtein, only till the return of a Courier he diſpatch'd ſome time ago to the Czar. An Expreſs is arrived at Straiſund, in his way to Stockholm, where it is ſaid he is going with an account, That the King of Sweden is actually ſet out from Demotica.

Bruſſels, May 31. N. S. Some Days ago the Regiment of Arembergh removed from this City to Aeth, and has been replaced by that of Hartop, which came from thence. Orders have been diſpatch'd to Baron d'Audignies to march to Morrow from Aloſt to Gand, in order to remain in Garriſon there.

Hague, June 1. N. S. On the 28th paſt, the Earl of Strafford was in Conference with Monſieur de Chateauneuf, Ambaſſador of France, in order to concert Meaſures for the Pacification of the North. Yeſterday his Excellency was again in Conference
